As per the administrators decision on appeal, the documentation submitted during initial review and on appeal failed to substantiate that our additional campuses met the statutory definition of a school.

During the initial review, what we were asked was to show that our school was recognized by the New York State Department of Education as a school.

The SLD did not provide us with any specific format or with an example of a format to provide the information that they were looking for.

We submitted to them a letter from the Board of Jewish Education of Greater New York and an email from Win Himsworth, the e-rate coordinator for New York State. Further we described the actual use of our additional campuses.

The documentation provided should have been sufficient to demonstrate that our additional campuses are eligible and meets the statutory definition of a school.

We respectfully request that our 471 application for the FRNs from the additional campuses be approved and funded.
